Class Commitment Form

We make the following commitment as class participants in A Marriage Made in Heaven:

1. To attend all sessions, arriving on time.
2. To do all the homework assigned following the Student Guide
3. To maintain the confidentiality of the class, not sharing with anyone what we have heard in class.
4. To press on with the difficult, or painful parts of our assignments.
5. To commit to improve our marriage through patiently following all instructions.
6. To commit to pray for and with my spouse and for all class members on a daily basis.
7. To participate fully in all as directed.
8. To avoid discussing with those outside the class how we share in the group, thereby discouraging others from participating in future classes because of misunderstanding.
9. We will make completing the class, including all homework, a high priority for the next 9 weeks.
